

POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCH SCHOLAR FELLOWSHIP THE CENTER FOR MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES RESEARCH

We are building a dynamic team of scholars at the Center for Mental Health Services Research (CMHSR) at the George Warren Brown School of Social Work at Washington University in St. Louis. The CMHSR has one position available for a Postdoctoral Research Scholar, immediately with a start date to be mutually negotiated. Applications are currently being accepted. The position will remain open until an appropriate candidate can be found.

Training focuses on the following substantive issues: improving the quality of mental health care; implementing evidence based mental health treatment; intervention adaptation and development; vulnerable populations; and mental health and social services.

Information about this position is available at <http://gwbweb.wustl.edu/cmhsr/postdoc.html>
The Post-Doctoral Fellow position is offered to candidates for up to two years. This position is supported through a grant, "Institutional National Research Service Award: Mental Health Services Pre-doctoral and Post-doctoral Training Program," NIMH - T32 MH19960, funded since 1995.

The CMHSR is funded by NIMH through the mechanism "Advanced Center for Interventions and Services Research (ACISR)," P30 MH068579. Information about the CMHSR is available at <http://gwbweb.wustl.edu/cmhsr/>

Questions about the position may be directed to Enola K. Proctor, PhD, Director, T-32 Training Program by email at ekp@wustl.edu or by phone at (314) 935-6660.

The Brown School's educational program emphasizes evidence-based practice and capacity building. In addition, the School provides an intellectually exciting, collegial, and supportive environment that fosters interdisciplinary and international research. Candidates should submit a letter of inquiry, vita, names and addresses of three professional references, and samples of written/published material to:
